Section 1
Notes, Additional Bidder Questions Received to Date

Q1: In Section 00370.4.2, it asks for 1st License Title, is that the classification of the License?

SARP10: Yes, this would be the classification of license (i.e. Contractor License). Only the licenses required for this scope of work should be listed.

Q2: If there are more than 2 classifications on the license, do they need to be stated as separate titles or can they be grouped into one?

SARP10: It is only necessary to list the overall classification per license number, and you should include a copy of the license(s); per section 00170.1 paragraph 4.

Q3: In Section 00370.2.1 the Business Interruption Plan, what kind of documents are you looking for?

SARP10: This information should outline how your business will continue to operate during an unexpected disruption of service (i.e. disaster and emergency preparedness plan).

Q4: In Section 00170.1, the introduction calls for an electronic CD copy, will a flash drive work?

SARP10: This information has been updated and is included in this addendum.

Q5: In Section 00370.4.7, what are the differences between Open-shop and Merit Shop?

SARP10: In an open shop, a union acts as representative of all the employees in making agreements with the employer, but union membership is not a condition of employment. A merit shop is a non-union contractor or shop using non-union employees that they have trained themselves.

Q6: By Work at the Jobsite with its own forces, is that including subcontractors?

SARP10: No, "with its own forces" would indicate all work would be performed by the bidder's company. The line just below that is where subcontractors would be indicated. As noted, subcontractors should be listed in section 00370.4.7 Sub-Subcontracts.
